

Investigate the Requirements to the Principles of Corporate Governance in Libyan Universities Management

Muftah Almabrok Abdalla

Omar Al-Mukhtar University, Faculty of Art, Department of Planning and Management of Education, Box 919, Al-Bayda, Libya

Abstract: The study aimed to investigate the requirements to the principles of corporate governance in Libyan universities management, and then determine these principles, in order to facilitate the application of scientifically serious. The study showed that there are number of basic principles of corporate governance adopted by the application management in universities and compose the basic forces acting on their effectiveness, and the study also has treated the requirements to application principles of corporate governance in Libyan universities, and found number of requirements which they can application principles of corporate governance in scientific and effective.